

FINANCIAL AND RESOURCE MANAGEMENT: 2010... and beyond

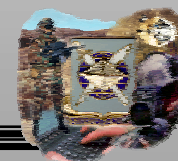

PURPOSE

To inform the Resource Management
Conference on the status of Finance and Resource Management merger

Financial Management Tomorrow: OBJECTIVE

- Establish a structure within the Combat Service Support (CSS) Battlefield Operating System that:
 - Provides financial and resource management support across the full operational spectrum
 - Comes from properly sized deployable and non-deployable elements, with reach capabilities

- No growth structure

Agenda

- Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
- FI-RM Merger Results
- The Way Ahead

FI-RM INITIATIVE FAQs

1. Q: Is Finance or Resource Management “broken”?

A: No.

2. Q: Then, why change?

A: The Army has a very good financial management system, but that does not mean we don't need to transform.

3. Q: Would the “field” accept this type of change?

A: Yes, commanders survey revealed desire.

FI-RM INITIATIVE FAQs (CONT'D)

4. Q: Who were the GOs interviewed?

A: Summary - 4 MACOMS; 3 Corps; 10 DIVs;
2 USAR/USANGs; 2 USA Schools and Centers

COMMANDS INTERVIEWED

Major Commands

USA Medical Command
USACorps of Engineers
USA Material Command
USA Europe and Seventh Army
USA Forces Command

MG James Peake
MG Milton Hunter
MG Charles S. Mahan
Gen. Montgomery C. Meigs
LTG Lawson W. Magruder III

USA Corps

XVIII Airborne Corps
1st Corps
V Corps

LTG Dan K. McNeill
MG Roger Brautigan
LTG James C. Riley

USA Divisions

82 nd Airborne Division
3rd Infantry Division
1st Infantry Division
1st Armored Division
4th Infantry Division
2nd Infantry Division and EUSA
25th Infantry Division
101st Airborne Division (Air Assault)
1st Cavalry Division
10th Mountain Division (Light)

BG David Petraeus
MG Walter L. Sharp
MG John P. Abizaid
MG George W. Casey Jr.
MG Benjamin S. Griffin
MG Robert F. Dees
MG William E. Ward
MG Richard A. Cody
MG David C. McKiernan
MG James L. Campbell

COMMANDS INTERVIEWED (CONT'D)

USAR Divisions

29th Infantry Division

BG(P) H. Steven Blum

USANG Divisions

35th Infantry Division

MG Lloyd E. Krase

USA Schools and Centers

USA Aviation Center

MG Anthony R. Jones

USA Intelligence Center

BG Richard J. Quirk III

FI-RM INITIATIVE FAQs (CONT'D)

5. Q: What is the benefit of change?

A: FI-RM produces a world class “Financial Management Corps” [the goal of ASA(FMC)]; better supports Objective Force; potential savings (?).

FI-RM SURVEY RESULTS

Bottom Line: All GOs surveyed think that there are clear advantages to FI-RM merger in the operational Army

FI-RM SURVEY RESULTS (CONT'D)

All GOs surveyed were:

- Pleased or very pleased with the performance of Finance and Resource Management
- Wanted a single point of contact for financial management
- Advocated “greening time” (branch detail up to 5 years) for Financial Management officers

FI-RM SURVEY RESULTS (CONT'D)

Most GOs surveyed:

- Think merger is right and timely for Objective Force
- Feel Financial Management must be deployable
- Think FI-RM would develop better financial managers for duties at the highest Army levels
- Want FM NCOs in their brigade

The Way Ahead

- Develop organizational design with no growth in force structure, maintaining a small footprint in deployed operations
- Assess doctrinal changes (FM 14-100)
- Test and implement the new design
- Revise and implement new career paths and training methodologies

Transition

